Dear Dillard:

I have a letter from Helen Newman requesting a report to be given at the Wednesday afternoon, July 26 meeting of the A.A.L.L. As I understand that you plan to attend I hope that I can prevail upon you to prepare the report and to give it at the meeting. If this is asking too much, do not hesitate to tell me, since I can send a report to Miss Newman directly.

The football tickets for the North Carolina game are in the bag. As soon as I determine the number needed I will have them in my hands.

With kindest personal regards to the Yankees from "Little Tex" and

Sarah
